From Nils Even Pettersen To Mr Prebensen
your Ref 64440/14. My FAX No 15
+4737711769

The court has this website: <http://www.echr.coe.int/Pages/home.aspx?p=home&c=>

DATE =
NOV 14,
2014

In their letter to me the court refers to article no 35 § 1 which states:

1. The Court may only deal with the matter after all domestic remedies have been exhausted, according to the generally recognised rules of international law, and within a period of six months from the date on which the final decision was taken.

I would like to inform the court that my application was sent within the six month deadline, as a registered letter from the Philippines. It was sent on September 3 2014 with tracking NO (Phillipine post) RR100867875PH.

The court also writes:

"I should remind you that the six-month period referred to in Article 35 § 1 of the Convention is interrupted only when a complete application is sent to the court".

I have sent a complete application, and not one which is wet and partly impossible to read, which the court states in their letter to me.. In their letter to me the court also refers to their Rule no 47. Rule no 47 no 1 states , among other things that:

"The Court may for good cause nevertheless decide that a different date shall be considered to be the date of introduction".

I would like to inform the court that my application can be found on my web-site:

www.rettssikkerhet.com . In the meny, choose "Rettsaka" and scroll down to the document / link named

A 290 klage til EMD of Sept 3, 2014 mot Norge og rettsvesenet. Nils Even Pettersen -

Also the court wrote to me:

"The court will not answer any letters or telephone calls concerning this incomplete file".

But I noted that the court states their fax no: +33 3 88 41 27 30, so I guess the court means that I can send a fax and may be they will answer the fax (but not a phone call or letter) ?

Rule 47 no 1 of the Rules of the Court (In Nils Pettersens case, read especially what is underlined in the text below, as this is the most relevant to my case/application):

(Contents of an individual application)

5. The date of introduction of the application for the purposes of Article 35 § 1 of the Convention shall as a general rule be considered to be the date of the first communication from the applicant setting out, even summarily, the subject matter of the application, provided that a duly completed application form has been submitted within the time-limits laid down by the Court. The Court may for good cause nevertheless decide that a different date shall be considered to be the date of introduction.

6. Applicants shall keep the Court informed of any change of address and of all circumstances relevant to the application.

I sent my application to the court of human rights on September 3, 2014 (within the 6 months deadline stated by the court as the Norwegian high court has dated their decision March 3, 2014). The court writes that my application dated September 3, was wet and not possible to read. They write that I can send it in again !

Rule no 47 of the court states that their main rule is that an application must be submitted within the time limits laid down by the court, and that the court may for good cause nevertheless decide that a different date, later than September 3, 2014, shall be considered to be accepted as the date of introduction. The six months deadline for applying to the European court of human rights will be exceeded and it will be too late for me to apply if I send the application again because the first one is allegedly damaged in the mail on the way from the Philippines to France ?

The fact that I sent my application as a registered letter proves that I sent this within the deadline which normally is 6 months from the date on which the final decision was taken from the Norwegian High court. This is a "good cause" that should qualify for a decision that a different date than September 3, 2014 (when my original application was sent) to be considered valid "the date of introduction "(deadline).

There are also other reasons for the court to accept that I send my application again and that September 3, 2014, is still accepted as the date I sent in my application and that this date is the one that will count as "interrupting the 6 month period deadline for applying to the European court of human rights".

One example is that when I asked the Norwegian High court how I could go further with their case, they were originally trying to hide the fact that it is possible to "apply to the European court of human rights within 6 months after the decision in the Norwegian high court". The court does not mention the European court as a possibility, which is incomplete information from them. To prove this I will ask you to read the e-mail I got from them as early as April 23, only 7 weeks after their decision in the Norwegian high court (not to treat my case at all, and without looking at my evidence or accepting any hearings).

November 14, 2014

From Nils Even Pettersen. Your reference: 6440/14 – my fax no is 004737711769 –

My tel no is +47 900 99999 and my e-mail is nils_even_pettersen@hotmail.com

I refer to my fax , 5 pages , which I sent to your fax no 0033388412730 at 03.58 this morning.

I am sending my application from my fax no 004737711769 (3 pages, 11 pages which is the application form and 74 pages attachments). This is because you said you did not receive my application in good condition – you wrote to me that the papers seem to have got wet by the time it reached you in France (see next page of this fax). But what about the USB memory stick which is glued to attachment page 30 ? Is this also damaged ? Do I also have to send a new one?

As I wrote on page 1 in the fax I sent at 3.58 this morning, I am hoping that the court will consider their rule no 47, no 1. You did not mention anything about this possibility that the court may for good cause nevertheless decide that a later date than September 3 , 2014, to be the date of introduction. I am writing this because September 3 was exactly 6 months after the Norwegian high court dated their decision not to treat my case (no hearings, no trial). So, if I send my application one more time to you in a letter, it will be sent later than 6 months after the Norwegian high court gave their final decision. Thus I fear you will give this a reason for not treating my case. This is because of the words in your letter to me dated November 6, 2014 (see next page), where you wrote: "I should remind you that the six-month period referred to in Article 35 §1 of the Convention is interrupted only when a complete application is sent to the Court" (I did send a complete application, not wet and damaged – which can be verified by the postman who received this from me in the posthouse). Also on September 5 I uploaded my application on www.rettssikkerhet.com

So, will you accept that you use the date of September 3 as the date I submitted my application? If you will not, I want to know if you recommend that I send a new application ? Will November then be the month you consider I submitted my application (2 months too late) ?

Page 3 of this letter shows my receipt to prove I sent my application on September 3, and that it was received by the court on September 25 at 2 p.m. You dated your letter to me November 6, and it was received in Norway November 12. So you took 40 days to find out that the papers "are wet and some of the documents are stuck"? And the papers were not dry when you wrote your letter to me? How many of the documents "are stuck together" – which page numbers ? And again: what about the USB memory stick which I stuck to my attachments page 30 ? Still working fine?

All this is a bit strange, as I put plastic around the papers before I put it in an envelope and also for other reasons. Hope you can understand this and my reasons for being suspicious as to where the damage was caused .

Page 2 is your letter to me, page 3 proves when I sent the application, page 4-14 is my application = the 11 pages form and 15-88 my attachments to my application. (Circles around the numbering at the bottom of each page).

87 pages follows (may be I will have to send this as more than one fax – do you have e-mail?)

Nils E. Pettersen
